This summer, Camp Ben Frankel, a Jewish camp in Southern Illinois, is bringing 18 Israeli Campers to camp for the summer. These campers have all been affected by the war and the majority of them are still displaced from their homes.

There is a group of nine campers arriving on Thursday evening around 10pm, June 20th to Chicago that do not yet have a place to stay. The camp will coordinate a shuttle to get the campers from the airport to your home. They will take the bus to camp on Sunday, June 23rd from BHBE, but we are looking for host families for groups of 2-3 campers on Thur, Fri, and Sat night in the Skokie/Evanston area. The campers are all rising 8th, 9th, or 10th graders. There is another group of campers staying with families in the area for Friday and Saturday night. Could you host a group of 2-3 campers from June 20-23? We have some plans for the weekend starting with a pizza dinner at BHBE on Friday evening. I can provide more information if you think you would be able to help. If you have any questions or are able to help, please contact Marrassa Seidler at mashseidler@gmail.com or 708-280-7684.
