NEW! BHBE now has the ability to send text messages! We plan to do this periodically starting soon! This may be for important event-related information or simply to communicate with our congregants in an expedient way. We look forward to using this new communication method! Our text messages will come from 1.847.545.0369. You may choose to add this to your contacts if you want to recognize texts from us. Please note, our texting is a one-way feature. We cannot accept texts from others - do not reply to our texts. We will not see your note.

Our digital doorbell system is not working and we are waiting for a replacement system. In the meantime, if you know you are coming to BHBE please let us know ahead of time by either phone or email - 847-256-1213 or information@bhbe.org. Please be sure we reply before heading over. There will be times that we cannot let you in so please be patient until we receive a replacement system. Thank you.

Thank you to everyone who has contributed to our BHBE kiddushes on Shabbat! We really could not do this without you. YOU have brought our community together - together for services, together for kiddush and together to hang out with our friends. We want it to continue. Please consider making a contribution to the Kiddush Fund even when it's not Birthday Shabbat. There are lots of occasions to honor--and you'll get an Aliyah! A kiddush with protein (and fruit, dessert and kugel) costs between $1000-$1500 for 120 people. We want you there. Help us out. For more information, see the BHBE website. Thanks,
Marsha Lyons, Mitzvah Coordinator
